BIBLE CONFERENCE

FOUR DAYS' SESSION OPENS AUSPICIOUSLY WITH FELLOWSHIP SUPPER

The four-day Bible Conference at the Presbyterian church opened last evening with the Fellowship supper in honor of Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Pratt and Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Edmonds. One hundred and fifty guests enjoyed the delicious menu prepared by the Ladies' Aid.

The ministers, and their wives, of Glendale and Tropico, were the guests of the Session. The only note of sadness in the whole evening was the absence of Mr. Edmonds, caused by sudden and serious illness.

Following the supper the opening message of the Conference was given by Rev. George W. Davis, Supt. Southern California Christian and Missionary Alliance, on "Influence and Power." Earnest prayer was offered by Rev. E. E. Francis of the Christian church. Miss Hazel Irwin of the Bible Institute brought the gospel message in song, "I Walk With the King," and "Sweet Will of God." Rev. Davis said in part:

Influence is man at his best or his worst, power is God at work. Every life has greater or less influence but most lives are powerless. Jesus Christ based his kingdom on power, he did not choose to be a man of influence, and those men nearest him in his earthly ministry were weak, ignorant fishermen. Men of influence may have power, but power is quite possible without influence. Their influence did not keep Paul and Silas out of jail, but their power did shake the jail and bring the jailer to Jesus Christ. Moses and Paul lost influence that they might have power from God. The choice between influence and power comes to every one of us.

The source of this power is the Holy Spirit, the third person of the Trinity, the one whom Jesus Christ sent when he went away. The Word speaks of the three dispensations of the Holy Spirit, typified by the dove sent out of the ark by Noah. The Holy Spirit found no lodgment in the heart of men in the dispensation of the Father. The olive branch is the type of reconciliation through Jesus Christ. Then the Holy Spirit came to dwell in the hearts of believers and not to return during his dispensation.

How may this power be obtained? By recognizing the Holy Spirit as the source of all power and his sovereign right as the executive of the God head. By realizing that his power is holiness, purity and love. Believe God and act upon the belief that God through Jesus Christ by Holy Spirit dwells within you and your life will have the power and "daily there shall be added unto the church such as shall be saved."

A feast of good things are in store for the coming days of the Conference. This afternoon at 3 o'clock, Dr. A. J. Frost of Los Angeles, who is well known in Glendale, will bring the message, "New Light on Difficult Passages of the Bible." This evening at 7:45 Dr. J. R. Pratt's message will be based upon the teaching of the eighth chapter of Romans.

The church will be open between the afternoon and evening services. All who wish may bring their lunch and have the use of the kitchen, dining and rest rooms. A cordial welcome awaits all who come.

WEST GLENDALE M. E. CHURCH

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the West Glendale M. E. church held its regular meeting in the church parlors, Thursday afternoon, June 1, Mrs. J. E. Henderson, president, being in the chair. After devotions led by Mrs. Helen Cook the minutes were read. Reports were then given for the year ending June 1, 1916, by the different secretaries.

The Mite Box secretary, Mrs. Burrington, reported that nearly all the mite boxes had been handed in and that a good sum had been collected from them. Mrs. E. Hoskyn reported that there had been collected and sent to different homes and schools 586 secondhand garments; 56 quarts of fruit, 41 glasses of jelly and jam, 34 pairs of stockings, 27 pairs of shoes, 15 comforts, quilts and blankets and various other articles. The total value of all these articles was $96.65. The thank offering was reported to amount to $37.25.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. J. E. Henderson, president; Mrs. Peck, vice-president; Mrs. Nellie Jordan, recording secretary; Mrs. Ellen Cooke, treasurer; Mrs. E. Details are lacking and losses on the German side are not given. The battle is said to be still in progress.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 2.—President Wilson and his advisers have made a careful study of Carranza's latest note to the United States, in which he charges bad faith against the president. CARRANZISTAS ARE GUARDING THE BORDER

GEN. FUNSTON REPORTS THAT 20,000 MEXICAN TROOPS ARE SPREAD OUT ALONG A 500-MILE LINE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 2.—Spread out along a 500-mile line, 20,000 Mexican troops are guarding the border between the United States and Mexico. Gen. Funston reports that the Carranzistas are evidently endeavoring to carry out their part of the agreement to patrol the boundary line and to endeavor to prevent Mexican bandits from raiding the border towns of the United States. It was reported today that Villa is hiding in Northern Chihuahua on a ranch that he confiscated from the Terrazas, the Mexican millionaires. Villa is also stated to be waiting for the inevitable downfall of Carranza.

GREECE TO DECLARE WAR ON BULGARIA

INVASION OF GREEK TERRITORY BY CZAR FERDINAND'S ARMY HAS ENRAGED THE GREEKS

(Special Service to Clendale Evening News)

ROME, June 2.—It is believed that a declaration of war with Bulgaria may be issued at Athens at any moment. The Greek premier, Skouloudis, has refused to accept the Bulgarian protests against the firing of the Greeks on the Bulgarians who were attempting to occupy Greek frontier forts. The excitement in the capital is increasing hourly and there have been furious demonstrations against King Constantine, who is responsible for Greek neutrality at this crisis.

HUGHES NOT WORKING FOR NOMINATION

SUPREME COURT JUSTICE SAYS HITCHCOCK NOR ANY OTHER HAS AUTHORITY TO USE HIS NAME

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 2.—Supreme Court Justice Hughes, through his secretary, informed the United Press association today that he had never authorized Frank Hitchcock nor any other individual to work for his nomination at Chicago. Hughes maintains his attitude of silence. He does not admit that he is a candidate for the office of president of the United States and will make no statement whatever regarding his views on preparedness or any other burning topic of the day.

GERMANS RENEW ATTACK ON DOUAUMONT

PARIS, June 2.—Douaumont is again under the fire of the German mortars. The rain of shells is unceasing though it falls on nothing but ruins. The French still hold the position, while German troops are entrenched at the northeastern end of the slope.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY

SENIOR CLASS WILL PRESENT "THE CABINET MINISTER" COMMENCEMENT WEEK

In taking Pinero's well-known play, "The Cabinet Minister," for presentation, Commencement week, the Senior class of the High School has given itself a task of no small magnitude. This play demands considerable histrionic power on the part of those who present it. It deals with topics and is set in an atmosphere unfamiliar to those who have undertaken the presentation; yet so much faithful study has been given the subject that, judging from the present stage of rehearsal, the play is in competent hands and will receive a clever representation.

This English comedy, which had a long run both in London and in New York, is woven around the struggles of a British cabinet minister and his wife to keep up appearances in society without adequate means to do so. Following is the cast:

The Rt. Hon. Sir Julian Twombly
..... Will Bode
Lady Twombly.....Dorothy Cloud
Brooke Twombly.....George Dyer
Imogen Twombly.....Lola East
Dowager Countess of Drumdurris
..... Rachel McClure
Lady Euphemia Vibart....Ethyl West
Earl of Drumdurris....Eldred Marlatt
Countess of Drumdurris.....
..... Margaret McPherson
Lady Macphail.....Katheryne Green
Macphail of Ballocheevin.....
..... Howard Stickney
Valentine White, Lady Twombly's nephew .....Will Renshaw
Hon. Mrs. Gaylustre, court dressmaker .....Mary Hunt
Joseph Lebannon (Jew financier)
..... Joseph Maier
Mr. Welton.....Sam Merriken
The Munkittrick and Probyn.....
..... Mervyn Mills
Miss Munkittrick.....Goldie Drake
Angele .....Grace Shropshire

The greatest care has been given to see that the play will be properly staged. The scenery has been specially adapted to the various settings. The play demands elaborate costuming. One scene will be brilliant with court costumes. Another will be gay with the picturesque Scotch Highland costume. The kilts will be in evidence and while no one has thus far offered to play the bagpipe there is no doubt that the atmosphere in which the play is set will smack sufficiently of Caledonian air to bring out the characteristics of the characters.

It is worth noting that all the students who are taking part in this presentation are well up in their regular class work and that the exigencies of the play have not caused anyone of them to sacrifice more substantial achievements. The play will be given Tuesday, June 13, and Wednesday, June 14, and should attract the usual large audience.

COLORADO BOULEVARD P. T. A.

The regular meeting of the Colorado Boulevard Parent-Teacher association was held Thursday afternoon, June 7, at the school. Mrs. Beamon, the president, presided at the business meeting, which was of much importance, being the last of the season. Officers for the coming year were installed as follows: Mrs. A. M. Beamon, president; Mrs. Curtis, vice-president; Mrs. Kinnaman, secretary; Mrs. Puffer, treasurer. All officers were re-elected. The membership made a fine showing in all departmental work.

Following the business session a musical program was given. A violin solo, (a) Chanson Polonaise, (b) Spring Song, was given by Forest Jordan, a pupil of Julius Kranz. He was ably accompanied by Mrs. Frank Churchill. Miss Maude Salisbury, a Glendale teacher of piano, gave a piano solo. Here selections were, A Spinning song by Mendelssohn, and Lark Song, Goudouski. Her encore was "To a Wild Rose" by Edward MacDowell. Informal old songs closed the program. Social tea and a short hour of social converse closed the afternoon and the meetings of the association for the season.

FAREWELL LUNCHEON

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Adams, 800 Adams street, entertained a small group of friends, Thursday afternoon, at luncheon, in honor of Miss Jennie Horsch, who is leaving Glendale to attend the Annual Missionary conference in New York city, where she expects to receive an appointment under the Presbyterian board, as a missionary in the foreign field. The house was tastefully decorated. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. John Horsch, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cooper and Miss Jennie Horsch.

FIRST GOLF HANDICAP

ENTHUSIASTIC GLENDALE PLAYERS ARRANGE FOR TOURNAMENT AT GRIFFITH PARK

It has been ascertained that Glendale contains a large number of enthusiastic golfers. In answer to the call issued by Dan Kelty and others for a meeting at Cornwell & Kelty's store, Friday evening, a number of golfers appeared and were quite enthusiastic over the prospect of getting the golfing community of Glendale together in some kind of organization. A number of other local golfers who were unable to be present, sent apologies for their absence and assurances that the movement had their hearty support.

After some discussion of conditions it was resolved to start the first Glendale tournament at once and to have it in the form of a match handicap. For this purpose all desiring to enter the tournament are requested to turn in two cards before June 12 so that the committee can arrange all handicaps.

An entrance fee of 50 cents will be charged. The first prize will be a Spalding Gold Medal ivory face driver. The prize for the second low score will be a half-dozen golf balls. Full information with regard to the club can be obtained at Cornwell & Kelty's store, Broadway. Those desiring to enter the tournament should communicate with Mr. Dan Kelty at the store. He will be glad to explain all the technical points of the tournament and give whatever information is necessary as to the golf course at Griffith Park.

The following committee was appointed to take charge of the arrangements in connection with the tournament: Hugh Blue, George Wood, Dan Kelty. Another meeting will be held at the Cornwell & Kelty store, June 12, when the full details of the tournament and the handicaps will be ready. It is likely that the tournament will take place along about June 16 or 17.

Those who have joined the organization up to date are: Herbert G. Henning, C. L. Moore, J. W. Usilton, Jesse Flower, Owen Emery, J. E. Rhind, Hugh Blue, Gerald Blue, Fred Humphrey, G. D. Wood, Dan Kelty and J. L. Keyes.

ELECT NEW OFFICIALS

The regular meeting of the Glendale Garden society was held Thursday evening in the Chamber of Commerce hall, at 7:30. Thirty-eight members were present. Interesting reports were given, among them was a financial statement from the treasurer, Mr. C. H. Woolsey, which showed that after having paid all expenses in connection with the recent Free Flower show the society had a balance of $92 in the bank.

The following officials were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Nanno Woods, president; Norton C. Wells, first vice-president; Albert Cornwell, second vice-president; Morris E. Caruthers, secretary; Olive Williams, assistant secretary; C. H. Woolsey, treasurer. Directors: Mrs. C. H. Ackley, Mrs. Ella Richardson, Mrs. Frank Hester, M. B. Hartmann and Peter Oliver.

A Bird and Birdhouse committee was appointed as follows: C. J. Orff, 1109½ Broadway, chairman; William Smith, 334 S. Adams, and three others to be nominated by the chairman. Interesting details of the work done in erecting birdhouses in the East were given by Mr. Orff.

It was arranged that instead of holding a regular meeting in July a picnic to Griffith park would be held, on the third Saturday of that month, July 15. Details later.

Mrs. Nanno Woods' paper on "How Philadelphia Made $28,000 From Its Vacant Lots" proved of vast interest. It will be published in Saturday's Glendale Evening News.

TONIGHT YOUR LAST CHANCE

Judging from the large sale of tickets for the very popular alumni play, "The Voice of Conscience," at the Palace Grand theatre, tonight, the house will be well filled, but it has been given out by the management that good seats are yet obtainable by those who have thus far neglected to reserve them. This will be your last and only opportunity to see this home talent play that has been so highly spoken of by those who heard it several weeks ago. The play was a good one, the performers are talented, the cause for which the surplus money is to be used is a worthy one, all of which justifies the large attendance which will be present this evening.

LA CRESCENTA

Next Tuesday evening the best motion pictures ever shown on the screen in La Crescenta, will be held in the school auditorium. The play will be a 5-reel story on the historical book, "The Last Days of Pompeii," and will be instructive as well as entertaining. The play, which is an excellent reproduction from the book, should be seen by everyone in the valley.

The result of the P. T. A. meeting last Thursday was as follows: Mrs. Katherine Grey, president; Mrs. J. Lewenstein, treasurer; Mrs. A. H. Schultz, secretary; Mrs. Van Huecklyn, historial; Messrs. T. Hopping, D. E. Wetherbee, H. Bissell, and Caldwell, vice-presidents.

Miss Katherine Klaassen, who has been one of the most popular young ladies in the valley, left a week ago last Tuesday, May 5, to return to her home in Grand Rapids, Mich. A farewell box party at the Morosco theater was given her, a few days before leaving. Among the guests were, the Misses Guy of Santa Monica, Corey and Bague of Sunland, Shiner of La Crescenta, the hostess, Mrs. John Leenhouts of La Crescenta; Messrs. E. Thomas, E. Simms, F. Begue, J. Krooman, and Mr. Paul. Dinner was afterwards enjoyed at the Alexandria grill. Miss Klaassen came to La Crescenta two years ago to visit her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Leenhouts. Her society has since been enjoyed by all the young people of La Crescenta and Littlelands.

La Crescenta is getting to be such a lively little burg that we are not dependent on the city for amusements any more, for instance last night the Improvement association had their meeting at the school house, and tonight the Parent-Teacher entertainment will be given. On the following Tuesday, June 6, movies come. June 9, Grammar school commencement exercises and the Ladies' Aid society announces a sock social for June 19. With Woman's clubs, bridge clubs, church socials, etc, sandwiched in between, La Crescenta is surely getting to be a lively little village.

Goss Canyon Water Co. contemplates sinking a well for the further development of water. A meeting was held at the home of Mr. Brown Tuesday, June 30.

Mr. Layton and wife of Gainsville, Texas, have rented one of Mr. Koon's cottages. They plan to stay here for the summer, for the betterment of of their health.

Mr. Shilling, who has one of the prettiest little places in La Crescenta, is erecting a new bungalow on Altura avenue. As known, Mr. Shilling's house was recently burned down by an unknown cause.

Mr. Lewenstein, whose poor health has necessitated him living in Glendale, now spends the week-ends at his residence on Los Angeles avenue.

Mr. Malcolm Jones and his stepfather, Mr. L. Lee, have been seriously ill during the past week. All hope for their immediate recovery.

Mrs. H. Harkness of Montrose avenue left Tuesday to return to her home in Minnesota. She has been a resident of this valley for the past six months.

Also our local milkman, Mr. Martinsen, left last Monday. All his friends and customers are very sorry to lose him and his excellent dairy.

Miss Clarita Scott of Los Angeles was a Sunday visitor with her friends, Marguerite and Dorothy Cloud. Also Dr. Geo. W. Moore and wife visited Dr. and Mrs. Cloud.

Mrs. Harry Richardson, of Los Angeles, is spending the week-end with Miss Eula Richardson, at the Richardson home, 805 S. Central avenue. The house party will attend the performance of "The Voice of Conscience" at the Palace-Grand tonight.

Mrs. Joseph E. Yancy, wife of a prominent business man of Bakersfield, has been a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Crawford, 916 South Central, Tropico, this week. Mrs. Yancy is an old friend of the Crawfords and her visit was thoroughly enjoyed.

Dr. J. H. Henry, who has been at Seeley, in the Imperial valley, arrived unexpectedly Monday evening to visit his daughter, Mrs. Wm. M. Crawford, at 916 S. Central avenue, Tropico, and spend Memorial day with old comrades of N. P. Banks Post. Rev. Henry leaves tonight for Seeley, where he expects to spend the summer.

Mr. H. A. Fishleigh of New York, Chicago and Detroit, is in Glendale on a short visit to his sister, Mrs. C. W. Fortune, 1310 W. Ninth street. The Rev. W. E. Edmonds, of the First Presbyterian church, has been quite ill during the past three days with ptomaine poisoning. While on the way to recovery, the reverend gentleman was unable to be present at the opening fellowship supper and service of the Glendale Bible Conference, which began in Glendale Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Rev. R. W. Mottern and family of 340 S. Central avenue, returned Wednesday evening from Riverside, where they had spent Memorial Day among their many friends. They report the services at the Evergreen cemetery attended by an immense crowd; they were impressive and the decorations were most beautiful. The day's services were concluded in the Congregational church at 11 o'clock that was packed from end to end. Dr. David Starr Jordan was the orator of the day and delivered a magnificent address, confining himself much to the European conflict and drawing lessons from it.

ACTIVITIES OF PATRIOTIC ORGANIZATIONS

N. P. Banks Post, 170, G. A. R., and W. R. C. No. 67, held their regular monthly all-day meeting Friday at the G. A. R. hall on Glendale avenue, Tropico. The usual excellent dinner was served on this occasion by Mrs. Tina Hammond, chairman of hospitality for May, assisted by Mesdames Hudson, Early, Atkinson and Spafford. There was a record breaking crowd, considerably more than 100 guests being seated at the lavishly laden tables. At 1:30 a good program was given, after which convened the regular meeting of the Corps,, the president, Mrs. Susie Peck, in the chair.

These all-day gatherings are bright spots in the lives of our beloved and honored veterans who sacrificed so immensely to preserve indissoluable our union and they should be continued and supported most heartily and generously by every member of N. P. Banks Post.

Memorial services honoring the departed members of N. P. Banks Post, No. 170, and W. R. C., No. 67, were conducted by these two orders, assisted by N. P. Banks Camp No. 22, Sons of Veterans, Sunday, at the G. A. R. hall. The building was crowded, every seat being occupied by spectators who listened with wrapt attention to the most excellent program, details of which were published last week.

Members of N. P. Banks Post residing in Eagle Rock prepared a splendid program for Memorial Sunday and entertained their friends and members of Post and Auxiliary corps. The two orders on their arrival at Eagle Rock were escorted to the Methodist church by the Boy Scouts under the leadership of Scoutmaster R. L. McNitt. Commencing at 7:30 the following program was given:

Prelude, Militaire (Rockwell).
Hymn, Congregation.
Anthem, Praise Ye the Father (Gounod).
Prayer, Dr. T. Cresswell.
Address of Welcome, Rev. Gillan, pastor.
Male Quartet, Cover Them Over With Beautiful Flowers, Messrs. Crandall, House, Kingdon, Mosher.
Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, Dr. Gibbons.
"The Boy Scout Movement," R. L. McNitt.
A Tear for the Comrades Gone, Choir.
Battle Hymn of the Republic, Mr. Congdon and Chorus.
Why the Relief Corps? Mrs. Flora Pixley.
A Message From the Departed, Rev. C. R. Norton, Post Chaplain.
America, Congregation.
Benediction, Rev. S. E. Knops.

Mrs. Flora Pixley, who delivered the address on "Why the Relief Corps," is past president of N. P. Banks Corps and was escorted by color bearers, Mrs. Louise Purnell, Mrs. Mayme Pollock, Mrs. Susie Peck and Mrs. Winona Crawford.

Each number of the program deserves special mention and the evening was one long to be remembered.

Decoration day was fittingly observed by N. P. Banks Post No. 170, W. R. C. No. 67 and Sons of Veterans Camp No. 22. Services were held at Grand View cemetery at 10 a. m. and at Forest Lawn cemetery at 3 p. m. The programs were read with interest in the local papers last week and were splendidly carried out. However, we wish to speak especially of the beautiful solo rendered at Grand View by Mr. Charles Allen and the thrilling bugle calls perfectly given by Mr. Charles Shropshire. These numbers were not printed in the advance programs, neither was the solo by Dr. J. H. Henry, who arrived unexpectedly Monday evening. His presence is always a delight to his comrades and friends and they are not satisfied until they hear his deep bass voice in song whenever he can be among them.

THRIFTY DENMARK

Denmark holds the world's record for intensive farming. Several years ago the Danish people realized that their prosperity must come from within their own borders rather than through enterprises of commerce. They proceeded to develop the arid wastes of Jutland, and this section has now become one of the greatest dairy countries of the world. Its butter is exported to every part of the earth. It is found in Mexico and even in the far-off islands of the Antipodes as well as Patagonia.

The reputation of these products is very high in Europe, particularly in England. The Danish cow-feeding methods are the wonder of the world. The farmers tether their cattle in rows in such a way that they can eat but a certain section of grass in a day. The next day they are moved farther in the meadow, and it is worked out on such a minute basis that by the time the cows have reached the end of the pasture the grass is ready for grazing at the beginning.

NOVEL BIRD HOUSE

Harris M. Benedict, who has devoted many years of study to perfecting methods of protecting wild birds, has recently constructed a bird house made of fire clay fashioned into picturesque shape, the surface being made to look like bark.

It has a lid that overhangs the entrance and prevents it from being flooded in times of storm. A small glass window permits the bird student to watch the progress of the occupants during the process of hatching and rearing the young without disturbing the birds or being seen.

The Merchants' Association, of New York City, has been collecting data to justify the claim that New York is "the wonder city of the world." They have the figures to substantiate the following claims: "The greatest Jewish city; and the greatest Irish city, with 674,721 residents of Irish blood."

In New York there are 723,000 Germans; 306,00 Austrians; 544,000 Italians and 735,000 Russians.

As to building operations, a new structure is completed on an average of every fifty minutes of every day of the year. The city has nearly 40,000 factories that turn out products valued at $2,900,000,000 annually. The foregoing are only a few of the considerations urged in support of the city's claims.
